

INVESTIGATIONS OVERVIEW

INVESTIGATIONS

Private Investigation Services

Discreet enquiries. Clear information.

THE ARMA APPROACH

When you need to understand a sensitive situation, the quality of the information matters. Arma approaches investigations with careful attention to detail, a clear scope, and respect for client confidentiality.

Our team supports corporate enquiries, fraud investigations, surveillance, and background checks. Each assignment is shaped around the questions that need answering, with straightforward communication throughout the process.

A focused path from uncertainty to clarity.

Discreet investigation services built on accuracy, persistence, and professional communication.

HOW WE OPERATE

01

Define the questions

A confidential discussion establishes what you need to understand and the information already available.

02

Plan the Investigation

We establish the investigative priorities, identify relevant information sources, and develop a focused plan to address the key questions in your case.

03

Review the findings

Relevant observations and findings are communicated clearly to support your next decision.

OUR CAPABILITIES

Establish the facts. Inform the decision.

Focused investigations for sensitive personal and business matters.

— Corporate & Workplace Investigations

Focused investigations into concerns affecting your organization, personnel, or operations. Relevant information is gathered, assessed, and documented to help establish facts and support informed decisions.

— Surveillance & Evidence Gathering

Planned observation and documentation to address specific investigative questions. Relevant activity is recorded and assessed within applicable legal limits, with findings presented in a clear report.

— Fraud & Misconduct Investigations

Investigation of suspected fraud, misrepresentation, and related misconduct. Records and available information are examined to clarify events, identify inconsistencies, and document relevant findings.

— Background Verification & Due Diligence

Verification of relevant background information for personal and business decisions. Research addresses agreed questions, identifies discrepancies, and provides context for assessing potential risk.

— Specialized Investigative Assignments

Investigation plans developed for matters requiring a specific scope or approach. We define the questions, identify relevant information sources, and report findings against the objectives of your case.
